Welcome

IAHSP® EUROPE is IAHSP® International's sister Association, founded in 2018 with the aim to bring together European Home Staging Professionals.

Who we are

The International Association of Home Staging Professionals IAHSP® is dedicated to advancing the education of professional Home Stagers and Real Estate Agents as they prepare homes for sale.

IAHSP® is the benchmark association established in 1999 and strongly built over decades of time as the longest running industry association.

Globally, we are the proven distinguished Home Staging Association for guiding and leading the Home Staging Industry.

Our

Mission

Vision

is to support our members with free ongoing education and provide unique networking connections and business opportunities is to bring well-deserved credibility and recognition to our profession in Europe. Together we will build it to become a blooming industry.

IAHSP FOUNDATION®

Is dedicated to serving those in need of support, assistance and help in our communities, throughout the United States and around the world.

Our mission is to change and enrich lives through the magic of Home Staging.

The key commitment of the Foundation is the WWSSW event, which takes place every year in September, where Professional Home Stagers from all over the world take part in this joint initiative.

IAHSP members and the affiliate Associations are strongly encouraged to take part in this event by donating their time and financial resources to charities, groups or individuals through their chosen Home Staging projects.
